They are also asking schools to offer audience tickets to the show for FREE! with voluntary donations taken on performance nights to go to a registered local charity chosen by the school.

The aim is that schools get to stage a musical in 2023 without having to pay a performance licence, students can participate in shows without worrying whether or not friends and family can afford to watch their performance, and community charities are supported.

About The SongStarz Musicals:

'SongStarz - Audition Show' adapted by F.J.Lily, gives schools a 'SongStarz Experience'. A one act show with 3 SongStarz Songs it provides scope and resources (backing tracks and songwriting tips and prompts) to support students to write their own songs and perform them within the framework of elements of the SongStarz story and a scripted SongStarz Audition.
