

Dual Alumni from Rimon School of Music & Berklee Appear on GRAMMY®-Nominated Album

*Berklee Indian Music Ensemble
SHURUAAT is Nominated for Best Global
Music Album of the Year*

BURLINGTON, CT, ISRAEL, November 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The numerous faculty, student, and alumni participants in Berklee's critically acclaimed Berklee Indian Ensemble woke up to phenomenal news on November 16 that The Recording Academy® had officially nominated their long-awaited album SHURUAAT for a GRAMMY® Award in the Best Global Music Album category the night before.

Rimon/Berklee Alumni keep heating up the charts and making a mark on the global music industry.”

Darcie Nicole

Rimon School of Music, Israel's first and largest contemporary music program, is also Berklee's first, largest, and longest-standing Global Partner School. Every year, several Rimon students continue their studies at Berklee and, very often, they find themselves as players in the best of the best Berklee ensembles.

The Berklee Indian Ensemble is no exception. Piloted as a special project by then-student-now-faculty Annette Philip (Director), the ensemble attracts a global cast of musicians, arrangers, composers, and producers who share a passion for Indian music.

GRAMMY® Nominees From Rimon Alumni:

Guy Bernfeld, Bass

Yogev Gabay, Drums/Percussion

Yoel Genin, Guitar

Noa Kahn, Drumset

Yotam Ishay, Keyboards/Accordian
Shai Portugaly, Keyboards/Voice

Rimon would like to congratulate its alumni who featured on Shuruaat and will wait excitedly for the 65th Annual GRAMMY Awards results on February 5th, 2023.
