LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, November 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- papmall®'s Ultra Promotion gives customers a big boost as the festive season approaches

papmall® is making the e-commerce industry wobble with their Holiday Season Ultra Promotion, especially when it is around that time of year again. And customers are happy with it.

2022 becomes more memorable with papmall® Ultra Promotion

“The festive season means a lot to many of our partners, so we hope this campaign promotion will make it extra special.”, said Mr. Jimmy Lee, CEO of papmall®.

We would like to give a big thank you to the sellers who chose to grow with us. Besides waiving the monthly fees, we also provide sellers with free paid ads & SEO so that nothing can hold them back.”

From now until January 31, 2023, buyers can accumulate reward points after each successful purchase ($50 equals 5 points). After 25 points, they will be able to save $5 per payment and can continue to earn more by writing reviews.

According to the papmall® representative, this campaign goes well beyond discounts and freebies on digital transactions - it holds the promise of extraordinary customer service to ensure that every buyer receives the best experience possible.

For seller clients, papmall® is thrilled to offer a 10% commission rate (including payment fee), saving them 2% off the standard rate. To take part in the event, all they need to do is create an account before the promotion ends.

However, that is not everything. “We would like to give a big thank you to the sellers who chose to grow with us. Understand the entrepreneur grind; besides saying goodbye to monthly fees, we also provide sellers with free paid ads and SEO support so that nothing can hold them back”, added Mr. Jimmy.

As a youth-centric platform, papmall® strives for a fair, transparent, and non-discriminatory business environment. Everyone, whether a seller or a buyer, is a valued customer, so they planned the campaign promotion with both targets in mind.

It is not the first time papmall® attempts to support businesses - Safe Payment Solution; Payment Assurance Services; Dispute Resolution and Complaints Policy; Payout within 7-14 days are just a few of the policies that keep their customers coming back.

It does not mean that the quality of service would change after the promotion. In fact, papmall® considers this the perfect occasion to provide customers gratification and celebrate this wonderful time of the year with them.

It is probably the most anticipated ultra promotion we have ever seen from papmall® so far. With new terms focused on bringing the best for their partners, it is a special surprise that users never know they need it.

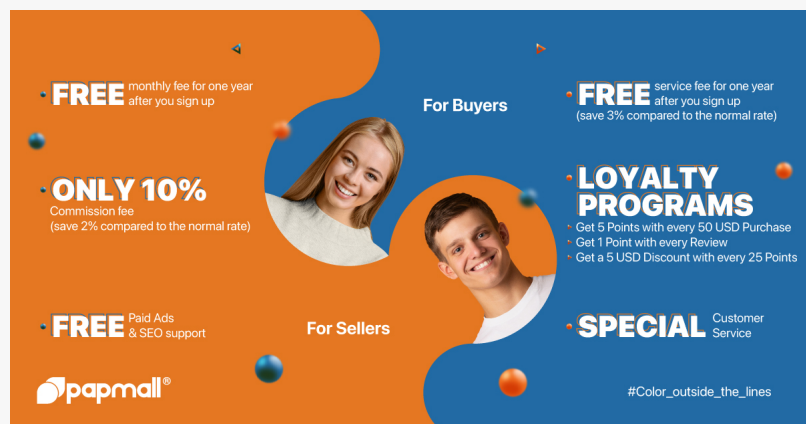

Running a business is a long journey, sure you will find out what works along the road. Still, hiring third-party experts helps resolve any issues that arose from not seeking help from the
