ABOUT

Scoolascoola is the co owner of Branch Off Records and an independent singer-songwriter in the Hip Hop industry. Born and raised in Supply, North Carolina, the promising artist spent much of his time growing up in the Cedar Grove/ Turkey Trap community.

Scoolascoola marked his segue into the music stream after he began rapping at the young age of 14 doing mix tapes after football and wrestling practice and on the weekends at Hounds Sounds Studios. After doing several shows in different states and performing at live gigs locally, he decided to get to the more business side of things. After sitting 2019 out of the recording aspect and shifting focus towards making business thrive, Scoolascoola made a resurgent return, having mastered the art of running a profitable business and publishing.
