

Ark Technology Companies Acquires VerisVisalign

ITX Facilitates Transaction

CLEVELAND, OHIO, UNITED STATES, November 28, 2022 / EINPresswire.com/ -- VerisVisalign, a full-service Microsoft Gold partner specializing in day-to-day implementation, project optimization, and assisting in licensing requirements, has been acquired by Ark Technology Companies, a rapidly growing cloud consulting and technology services firm.

The transaction was facilitated by ITX, a global leader in smaller mid-market mergers and acquisitions focusing on Microsoft, Oracle and ServiceNow Channel Partners, as well as MSPs, MSSPs, and IT Services businesses.

"After speaking with dozens of buyers it was clear Ark Technology was the best fit for our employees and customers. Walter Cook, CEO of Ark Technology Companies, and his team have a vision that aligns with our guiding principles and will continue as a leader in the Microsoft ecosystem," said Deborah Moses Elton, Founder and CEO of VerisVisalign.

"Between Deb's leadership and her team at VerisVisalign, we have broadened our Microsoft Cloud Partner offering, as well as Business and IT Process Optimization. This acquisition is strategic for Ark Technology, and provides a larger platform for further expansion," said Walter Cook, CEO and Founder of Ark Technology Companies.

"Selling one's business is the biggest decision you'll make as a founder. Once I made that decision, I entrusted ITX to facilitate the transaction of my Microsoft Channel Partner practice. In addition to having a best-in-class team of transaction professionals, ITX has an unparalleled database on 50,000+ global buyers. My team and I are pleased by the outcome," said Deborah Moses Elton, Founder and CEO of VerisVisalign.
