Daniel Tobok, Appointed as Cyber Security Advisor for Legendary Business Visionary, Rohan Marley and RM Enterprises

TORONTO, CANADA, November 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Daniel Tobok, CEO of CYPFER, announced today his appointment as Cyber Security and Intelligence Advisor for one of the world's leading business visionaries from Jamaica, Rohan Marley of RME / Rohan Marley Enterprises.

Marley is an internationally acclaimed investor and entrepreneur, the son of iconic musical legend, Bob Marley. Marley sells products and services to consumers worldwide, leveraging his personally founded life business philosophy that provides customers an experience of love and joy his family name is famously synonymous with.

"The challenge to globalizing my vision and reaching a worldwide audience is structured security and systems" says

Marley, the 50-year-old business visionary. "With great growth comes great preparation. This is why developing and deploying pro-active measures to monitor my global efforts is paramount as I focus to ensure supply chains, channels, and the technology that manages them are unshakeable when delivering goods to consumers that range from, cannabis to coffee, to wine and apparel" states Marley.

Marley's life business includes industries such as cannabis, apparel, electronics, vacation clubs, spirits, and coffee. It includes established brands such as Lion Order Cannabis, Romarley Beach House and Marley Coffee; each performing well under Marley's leadership.
