

AHP Earns Great Place to Work Certification™ for 7th Consecutive Year

SUDBURY, MA, USA, November 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Advocates for Human Potential, Inc. \(AHP\) is proud to be a 2022-2023 Certified™ Great Place to Work®. This is the 7th year in a row AHP has received this honor, which is based entirely on what current employees report in anonymous surveys about their experience working at AHP.

AHP is headquartered in Sudbury, Massachusetts and has corporate offices in Pasadena, California and Chicago, Illinois. AHP's remote staff live all over the United States and make up 75 percent of its employees.

Great Place to Work is the global authority on workplace culture, employee experience and the leadership behaviors proven to deliver market-leading revenue, employee retention and increased innovation.

In addition to ranking AHP a “great place to work,” employees highly ranked AHP in areas including:

- People being willing to give extra effort.
- A sense of pride in what the company accomplishes.
- Customers rating AHP service as “Excellent.”
- Feeling management would only lay employees off as a last resort.
- Having the resources and equipment to do their job.

“We are thrilled to once again be Great Place to Work Certified, as we consider employee experience a top priority every day,” said AHP CEO Neal Shifman. “Our company has more than doubled in size in the last year, and we have put great effort into enhancing our diversity, equity

I am incredibly proud of our AHP staff and all they accomplish in bettering the public health system and enhancing the lives of vulnerable populations”

Neal Shifman, AHP CEO

and inclusion (DEI) initiatives.”

“Our continued success is driven by our diverse team of dedicated and talented employees. I am incredibly proud of our AHP staff and all they accomplish in bettering the public health system and enhancing the lives of vulnerable populations.”

LGBTQ+, female and male employees ranked AHP highly as a great place to work, as did various racial/ethnic groups of employees. In fact, 100 percent of Black, Hispanic/Latinx and Asian employees who answered the survey rated AHP a great place to work. The company also scored well among employees of all age demographics and company levels, and with both hourly and salaried staff.

This year AHP offered employees wellness events, volunteer opportunities for remote and in-office employees, bonuses and raises, a new “Perks” discount program, a bonus for staff to use for personal wellness, office parties, DEI trainings, DEI book and film clubs and more.

According to Great Place to Work research, job seekers are 4.5 times more likely to find a great boss at a certified great workplace. Additionally, employees at certified great workplaces are 93 percent more likely to look forward to coming to work and are twice as likely to be paid fairly, earn a fair share of the company’s profits and have a fair chance at promotion.

Visit AHP’s careers page at: AHP: Advocates for Human Potential Career (ahpnet.com); (<https://www.ahpnet.com/Careers>).

Sarah Farmer
Advocates for Human Potential, Inc. (AHP)
+1 703-774-4263

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

LinkedIn

Other

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/603721692>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

