

Actor Linda Collins Set to Perform in Several New Film and TV Productions

Starring Roles and TV Series Appearances Abound For Tantalizing Talent

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, November 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Actor Linda Collins continues to make a mark on the industry with several accolade-collecting films and striking series that are currently in production or wrapped.

For example, Linda stars as a series regular in "Clique", an indie original Biopic LGBTQ+ series (Ish Productions), where she plays Katherine Reed-Bangel, which started shooting on November 12. Linda also stars as mob boss woman Tiffany in Omar Moore's crime thriller series "Paper" , currently in production.

Recently, Linda wrapped her starring role as Marigold in the short film "The Prof", alongside Lukas Hasell (The Blacklist) as The Prof and produced by Intention Films and Media, Debra Markowitz, Director/writer and John Marean, videographer. The film "CUTTER" Eden Wright's new short, featuring Linda as an unapologetic hair salon owner , that she finished earlier this year, screened at the Chelsea Film Festival and is beginning its festival run in earnest.

Additionally, Linda did a guest spot on an episode of Debra Markowitz' "A Couple of Guys" series playing Roxanne, starring Lukas Hassell (The Blacklist) and Sal Rendino (Billions).

Earlier this year, "Three for the Road", where Linda has a starring role and is Executive Producer, was an Official Selection and/or an Award Winner at many Film Festivals including New York Independent Cinema Awards, LA Independent Women Film Awards, Amsterdam Short Film Festival, Arthouse Festival of Beverly Hills, the Brightside Tavern Film Festival and appeared in several others.

Currently in pre-production, Linda is cast in a co-starring role as Helga in writer/director Andre
