

Behaven Kids Promotes Kelly Micek to Clinical Director of Specialized Day Programs and Therapy

Promotion part of Behaven Kids expansion of services and capacity throughout Nebraska

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, USA, November 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Behaven Kids, one of Nebraska's leading providers of services for children and adolescents who have been diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder, mental health-related issues and behavioral difficulties, has promoted Kelly Micek to Clinical Director of its specialized day program and therapy services.

Kelly Micek

Micek will be responsible for overseeing Behaven Kids' specialized day program in the Lincoln and Omaha locations as well as therapy staff throughout the organization. In addition, she will oversee trauma-informed care and handle parent communication. Micek has been at Behaven Kids for the past seven years, most recently as a therapy coordinator.

We're very pleased to promote Kelly to this new position and it is consistent with our mission of developing and promoting from within."

Themis Gomes, CEO of Behaven Kids

Micek's promotion follows the recent hiring of Dr. Janie Funk, Ph.D, BCBA-D – who was brought onboard to run the ABA program – and Paula Kenyon, Ph.D., BCBA-D, a doctoral-level Board Certified Behavior Analyst with more than 25 years of professional experience, to the company's advisory board. Behaven Kids also added three clinical BCBA's to support its ABA programs.

"We're very pleased to promote Kelly to this new position and it is consistent with our mission of developing and promoting from within," said Themis Gomes, CEO of Behaven Kids. "We go to great lengths to find, hire and develop the best talent possible to meet the ever-increasing need for behavior-related services in Nebraska.”

Behaven Kids is a provider of services for children and adolescents who have been diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder, mental health-related issues and behavioral difficulties.
