BURBANK, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Representatives of the Akopyan Law Firm, A.P.C. based in Burbank, California, announced that the law firm fights on behalf of workers whose family medical leave rights are violated in Los Angeles County and throughout Southern California.

"We represent employees and fight for them in cases involving the California Family Rights Act," said Michael Akopyan, founder and spokesperson for the Akopyan Law Firm, A.P.C. "In California, the law provides eligible workers working for 'covered employers' to take up to 12-weeks of unpaid leave without losing their job, being demoted, or being retaliated against."

"This law is very similar to the federal Family Medical Leave Act, but offers additional protections to California employees," revealed Akopyan.

"The law provides job protection for qualified employees needing time off from work due to a serious health condition," said Akopyan.

"If you are in the Los Angeles area and believe that your family medical leave rights were violated by your employer, call one of our attorneys to discuss your specific situation," said Akopyan. "Our employment attorneys have substantial experience representing employees and can help you restore your sights."
