W. Barry Nixon, a widely recognized expert on background checking is the co-author of Background Screening Investigations: Managing Hiring Risk from an HR and Security Perspective, founder of PreemploymentDirectory.com, a past recipient of the coveted 'Most Influential People in Security' award by Security Magazine and is the publisher of the leading e-magazine for the background screening industry - The Background Buzz.

W. Barry Nixon, said, "a primary goal for the Advice Center is to educate employers about key aspects of background checking to help them improve their process, to provide expert insights for background screening firms and to increase job seeker's knowledge of the process to reduce applicant's anxiety as well as the animosity that they oftentimes have with the background screening process.'

Nixon added, "We are building a bridge for the stakeholders of background checks to better understand how their destinies are intertwined in the background screening process and to help each of them to achieve the best possible result."

We are putting special focus on our, Advice for Job Seekers because we believe that this area does not receive enough attention. Driven by the belief that 'an educated job seeker is the best job seeker' we are helping them to better navigate the background check process.
