2022”, the dental equipment and supplies market grew from $19.75 billion in 2021 to $22.16 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 12.2%. The Russia-Ukraine war disrupted the chances of global economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, at least in the short term. The war between these two countries has led to economic sanctions on multiple countries, surge in commodity prices, and supply chain disruptions, effecting many markets across the globe. The dental equipment and supplies market is expected to grow to $32.96 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 10.4%. The dental industry is continuously incorporating advanced technologies for the manufacturing of dentures.

Key Trends In The Dental Equipment and Supplies Market

The dental industry is continuously incorporating advanced technologies for the manufacturing of dentures. Digital dentures deal with workflow involved in the fabrication of dentures which are prosthetic devices meant to replace missing teeth. This process utilizes software modules such as computer-aided design and computer-aided manufacturing (CAD/CAM) and materials to create precision-fitted dentures in short durations. The inclusion of this concept allows dental technicians to fabricate prostheses using material discs with quicker design time and better fit. Companies that offer digital dentures include AvaDent, DENTCA, Dentsply Sirona, Amann Girschbach.
