

Partnership established between Learning Resource Network (LRN) and Defence Housing Authority College & School System

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, December 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In November 2022, Learning Resource Network (LRN) signed a partnership agreement with the Centre for Emerging Studies and iLearn, as well as the Defence Housing Authority College and School System (CES-DHACSS). CES-DHACSS will now be offering LRN's qualifications in Karachi, Pakistan.

DHACSS have fifteen campuses in Pakistan and over 16,000 students, ranging in age and education level from pre-school to master's degree level. LRN's qualifications will be introduced in their institutions across Karachi, educating students in a range of different qualifications.

Director Center For Emerging Studies , CES - DHACSS , Azhar Rafi said: " We are committed to provide our youth with innovative learning opportunities that profoundly help transform lives of DHACSS students".

LRN's CEO Dr. Muhammad Zohaib Tariq said: "LRN are feeling optimistic and enthusiastic about working closely with CES-DHACSS , and are hopeful that this is only the beginning of a long and fruitful partnership".

Executive Director Education , Defence Housing Authority College & School System (DHACSS) Brig Muhammad Arshad Khan(R) , said: "At DHACSS we are well aware of the challenges, of shaping young impressionable minds with a positive international perspective. We aim to empower our students by preparing them, to grow as individuals who will make a mark in the global village, the world has come to be today. We are hopeful that our partnership with LRN will open new avenues for our students".
