Most handles, particularly those used for commercial and residential doors, either have locking mechanisms or can be modified to fit common door locking or latching systems. The oldest decorating technique is to replace old cabinets with new hardware. The same technique works on a larger scale with doors.

Industry growth can be attributed to the rapid industrialization and urbanization of residential and commercial construction, as well as increased consumer spending on interior fittings and home remodeling. Consumers are buying more of the latest trends and this has helped the industry gain increasing popularity. Companies are also producing fashionable products with improved designs, patterns, or materials that add rich aesthetic appeal to the infrastructures.
