extend the life of their blowouts or hairstyles without having to fully wash and style their hair every day. Dry shampoo is a product that can be sprayed, sprinkled, or rubbed on the scalp and roots of your hair to absorb oil, dirt, and sweat from the follicles. It typically comes in a powder form with starch as its primary ingredient which soaks up excess oil from the scalp for a cleaner look and feel. Dry shampoos also come in aerosol cans which generally offer more volume but less absorption than powder formulas.

Dry shampoo is a great way to keep your hair looking and feeling clean without having to take the time for a regular wash. Not only does it absorb oil, dirt, and buildup in your hair, but it can also provide you with some serious benefits. Here are some of the top advantages of using dry shampoo on a regular basis. Using dry shampoo regularly can help extend the life of your hairstyle. It helps hold in moisture and prevents product from weighing down your hair or making it look greasy throughout the day. Additionally, it takes just minutes to apply so you can fit it into even the busiest schedule. This makes dry shampoo an ideal choice for those who want quick styling solutions that still look professional.
