SAE Media Group reports: The anticipated Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe Conference returns in Budapest in 2023

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, December 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SAE Media Group proudly present the return of the Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe Conference for its 8th successful year in Budapest, Hungary the coming March 1 – 2, 2023. Online registration is open now!

As the only logistics conference specifically dedicated to the region, this is the critical forum where attendees will hear from senior officers, military logistics commanders, and industry experts who are brought together to discuss the modernisation and cooperation of defence logistics from the High North to the Black Sea.

The importance of defence logistics as a capability in its own right continues to grow with the increasing prevalence of systematic multilateral cooperation between armed forces and the continual development of new technologies with exciting logistics application.

Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe 2023 will create an event that will channel these developments and reflect the most pressing priorities of NATO allies and partners.

To find out more about the conference and key topics discussed please visit the website at: <http://www.defence-logisticscee.com/PR2ein>

Register now and save £200 until 16 December 2022!

The conference will be proudly chaired by Brigadier General István Filótás, Deputy Commander of the Modernization and Transformation Command from the Hungarian Defence Forces Command (HDF-C).

Some of the expert military speakers include:

- Lieutenant General Alexander Sollfrank, Commander, NATO Joint Support and Enablement Command (JSEC)
 - Brigadier General Liviu Marian Mazilu, Head of Logistics Directorate – J4, The Defence Staff of the Romanian Armed Forces
 - Colonel Faith Chamberlain, Commander of the Defence Logistics Agency – Europe and Africa (DLA E&A), U.S. Department of Defense
 - Colonel Jon West, Assistant Head of Sustainment, Futures Directorate – Military Capability Plans, British Army
- And many more...
