I'm excited to help the good people of planet Earth walk this path, BEER in hand, to BEER Labs Games!"

Dr. Damo, Mad Scientist

"Game Development is an open door to the wonderful world of creative software engineering, yet many find taking this first step in the journey tedious and turbulent" says Dr. Damo - mad scientist, founder and CEO of BEER

Labs Games. "It is why I'm excited to help the good people of planet Earth walk this path, BEER in hand, to BEER Labs Games!" he stated standing inside the lab on a recent afternoon. Continuing "BEER Labs is proud to be based in Adelaide, Australia, and is committed to continue building the local gaming community. We're looking forward to working with other developers and creators in the area to push the boundaries of what is possible in the world of gaming."

BEER Labs believes that the future of gaming is bright and full of endless possibilities. While they work at the forefront of Virtual Reality an Augmented Reality development, they're turning over a new leaf with a special focus on great indie gaming. B.E.E.R. Labs Games is dedicated to creating engaging and immersive gaming experiences for players of all ages, and backgrounds. With a deep track record of exploring new technologies and platforms, they expect to make an impact not only on Australian gaming, but worldwide by continuing to craft top-notch experiences for

BEER makes the world better.
