Vince Imhoff founded Imhoff & Associates, P.C., in 2003. Imhoff achieved a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Lewis University and later obtained his J.D. from the Illinois Institute of Technology/Chicago-Kent College of Law in 1989. After earning his J.D., Mr. Imhoff was a Public Defender in Cook County, Illinois, from 1990 to 1997. He then entered private practice as a solo practitioner. Now, Imhoff is the Managing Director of Imhoff & Associates, PC. Imhoff & Associates has offices throughout the United States and works with over 650 lawyers across the country.

Imhoff & Associates provides the highest quality representation for individuals who have been accused of committing criminal offenses. The company offers support to individuals, as they understand that they are going through some of the most stressful times in their lives. With the help of their powerful and highly experienced team of attorneys, they are prepared to provide creative, hard-hitting defenses for clients across the nation, no matter what the case may entail, how complicated matters may seem, or what crimes the accused are charged with.

Today, Vince Imhoff is a member of the State Bar of Illinois, State Bar of California, and State Bar of Pennsylvania. He is also an active member of the California Public Defenders Association, Santa Monica Bar Association (Treasurer 2012-2014, Board Member 2008-2014), Lesbian Gay Lawyers Association (Secretary 2009-2011, Board Member 2009-2015), San Bernardino County Bar, San Fernando Valley Bar Association, California Attorneys for Criminal Justice (CACJ), and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL).
