We are encouraged to see so many people use this free community service each year. Each person who uses this service is helping make the roads safer for all of us.”

Justin Roberts

To offer this free service to the community, Roberts & Roberts is partnering again with the Tyler Car Service and Yellow Checker Cab of Longview. To make the service even easier to use, Roberts & Roberts has created an easy-to-remember phone number that will connect callers with their local ride service: (903) 333-RIDE (7433).

Randy Roberts started this annual safety campaign in Tyler more than 15 years ago to prevent drunk driving accidents during the holiday season. His son and law partner, Justin Roberts, has since expanded the campaign to serve the residents of Longview and extended it throughout the holiday season.

Justin Roberts stated, “We are encouraged to see so many people use this free community service each year. Each person who uses this service is helping make the roads safer for all of us.” Randy Roberts encouraged people to use this free community service: “If you need it, the ride is still on us. Please use this service, so people don’t need to use ours.”

As a personal injury law firm, Roberts & Roberts has sponsored community safety campaigns over the last 30 years, encouraging the use of infant car seats, seatbelts for older children and adults, and designated drivers for those who consume alcohol.
