

Sofema Online's B2B feedback for 2022

Sofema Online (SOL)

www.sofemaonline.com presents feedback for their business-to-business features in 2022

SOFIA, BULGARIA, December 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sofema Online (SOL) www.sofemaonline.com reviews customer feedback regarding their business-to-business features during the last year.

The graphic features a yellow background with a sunburst pattern. A blue banner at the top reads "Enroll now - Pay later". Below it, a larger blue banner says "The most useful Sofema B2B feature in 2022". A smaller blue banner at the bottom of the graphic says "Request details at team@sassofia.com". In the bottom right corner, there are logos for PTP (Privileged Training Partner) and SOFEMA ONLINE (Virtual Aviation Academy). Below the graphic, the text "Sofema Online's B2B feedback for 2022" is displayed.

Commented Steve Bentley FRAeS, CEO of Sofema Aviation Services: "After asking a number of clients which one feature they found useful in 2022, Sofema understood that without question it was the ability of their corporate clients to sign up delegates for online training with Sofema Online for immediate enrollment and to receive a single invoice at the end of the month."

This feature eases the administrative burden for both Sofema and the client. It also produces better discounts for the client (discounts of course increase with the number of enrollments).

About "Client Account – Choose Now – Pay Later"

This option is open to all members of the Sofema "Privilege Training Partner" program (PTP).
