

LeaseMax™ by Beekin interfaces with Yardi Voyager®

NEW YORK CITY, UNITED STATES,
December 13, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Beekin, developer of LeaseMax™ - the most advanced AI-powered revenue management system for rental housing - announced its integration with Yardi Voyager, a leading property management and accounting software for residential and commercial real estate. Joining Yardi's Standard Interface Partnership Program (SIPP) allows LeaseMax™ to provide mutual clients with a seamless bi-directional transfer of data to and from Yardi Voyager® - a cross-platform revenue management solution.

Joining Yardi's SIPP will save our clients' asset management and site teams valuable time with automated workflows, as well as quicken our market-leading onboarding process for new clients.”

Vidur Gupta, Founder and CEO of Beekin

“We're excited about how this collaboration with Yardi will benefit our clients,” said Vidur Gupta, Founder and CEO of Beekin. “Joining Yardi's SIPP will save our clients' asset management and site teams valuable time with automated workflows, as well as quicken our market-leading onboarding process for new clients.”

Vidur continues: “LeaseMax™ is able to deliver dual goals - higher NOI and centralization. It is vital in an increasingly tough market, with continued hiring and training challenges. The integration with Yardi Voyager further affirms our position as technology innovators, leveraging Yardi's dominance in the property space with best-of-breed solutions for progressive operators.”

Since its launch in 2021, LeaseMax™ has continually driven 6-7 figure NOI for top apartment owners. Through simplicity and ease of use, it saves teams hours of effort, helping them navigate autonomously in a changing market.
