Billi also created "Camp Billi Marcus" to help working parents who might not otherwise have been able to send their children to summer programs. She also chaired and continues to be involved in the Morgan & Friends Fight Cancer Golf Tournament, a fundraiser for breast cancer in Boca Raton, Florida.

Her Foundation has also contributed to the Ovarian Cancer Institute, Jewish Association for Residential Care (JARC) of Boca Raton and the Georgia Aquarium, Big Brothers & Big Sisters, and the National Council of Jewish Women, to name a few.
