This twenty-six-acre Gadsden location also has two fully covered fifty feet drop off lanes, along with twelve fully enclosed service bays that are twenty-five feet wide by fifty-feet long to facilitate the growing service needs due to the RV industry's explosive growth.

“

We wanted to do something big to commemorate this milestone. It's the largest facility we've invested in, and an RV Giveaway seemed like the right way to launch this next phase of our company.”

Mr. Chase Baerlin- President

The newest location in the Bankston Motor Homes family-owned business represents a fifteen-million-dollar investment. Chase Baerlin, President of Bankston Motor Homes, was asked why the company decided to give away an RV to promote the new location. Chase responded, “We felt like we wanted to do something big to commemorate this milestone. It's the largest facility we've invested in, so far, and an RV Giveaway seemed like the right way to launch this next phase of our company.”

Mr. Phillip Wright of Boaz was the lucky winner & claimed his prize on Wednesday November

29th at the Gadsden location. When asked about winning the almost $21,000 RV, Phillip responded, "This is a great surprise! When I entered, I hoped to win- but you don't expect to be the one when the name is actually drawn. Thank you to Bankston Motor Homes for giving us this amazing prize."

The Attalla/Gadsden location was part of the vision shared by Harrison Bankston, founder and president emeritus. The grand opening celebration on Friday September 16th was attended by several dignitaries including Governor Kay Ivey and the Mayor of Attalla, Larry Means.
