

Elite Capital & Co. participates in the Money 2.0 Conference and opens the possibility of meeting its CEO directly

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM,
December 14, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Mr. Steven Adriell, Director Business Relations Department of Elite Capital & Co. Limited, announced today that Elite Capital & Co. will participate in the Money 2.0 Conference in Dubai which will be held at the InterContinental, Dubai Festival City, 16 to 18 December 2022, and Elite Capital & Co. Limited opens the possibility of meeting its CEO directly by requesting a prior appointment to discuss the potential of financing projects.

“The Money 2.0 Conference in the United Arab Emirates is one of the most important international conferences that we will be proud to participate in this year,” Steven Adriell said.

The Money 2.0 Conference is a three-day event dedicated to encouraging excellence in education, research, and practice related to law and finance. The speakers at the conference will talk about topics such as scam/fraud prevention in fintech, investing in the stock market, paying off debt, and understanding tax laws. They will also host thought leaders from corporate law and finance to offer insights into everything, from risk management to IPO structuring.

The COVID-19 pandemic has been a wake-up call for financial services experts and Money 2.0 Conference hopes to help them keep up and gain tremendous momentum. At the conference, attendees will have the chance to network with other professionals from around the world who share their interests and goals.

Attendees will also get access to experts who will provide them with real-world examples and
