"The New York Festivals is a powerhouse of celebrating creativity, and I'm honored to join the advisory board. It will be my privilege to represent the strength of our sector in the UK and I look forward to getting involved and to championing excellence." —Pete Stevenson, Executive Director, The Edge Picture Company

Pete has been a Director of The Edge Picture Company for over 25 years and is responsible for managing client relationships and delivering creative solutions for organisations and brands across the world. He brings extensive experience and passion to every project, always looking for ways to use the power of film to grab attention and change perceptions. Pete speaks regularly to client leadership groups large and small and runs sessions on the Psychology of Film and its role in Behaviour Change.

He has been closely involved over many years as a Taskforce member with Government-sponsored Engage for Success, an organisation focusing on inspiring and fostering better engagement across the UK. Pete's work has garnered hundreds of international awards over the years, including the prestigious Grand Prix at the EVCOM London Film Awards.

In 2021 The Edge Picture Company was chosen by the New York Film & TV Festivals as their Production Company of the Year for a record 15 years in succession.

The deadline to enter the 2023 Television & Film Awards competition is December 31st, 2022. To view entry details and competition rules and regulations visit :https://tvfilm.newyorkfestivals.com/. View 2023's categories HERE.
