NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
December 16, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- In staggering fashion, the iLuxury Awards has announced all prestigious brands who are in possession of this years' grand title. Hosted under the comprehensive banners of the International Awards Associate (IAA), the platform continues to provide utmost recognition while representing luxurious brands and services as the primary symbol of certified status.

“

We belong to an era where luxury signifies future standards, and I envision a stalwart future where class is of uttermost priority.”

Thomas Brandt, Spokesperson of IAA

Across the competitive periods in 2022, the awards program has aggregated lavishing submissions exceeding 25 countries in total, inclusive of United States, United Kingdom, Mexico, China, Turkey, Canada, France, Portugal, and many other esteemed nations. Shouldering the accreditation of the worlds' elite brands, products, and services, the grand jury panel is coordinately fundamental in assuring the unprejudiced evaluations to determine industrial elites.

Grand Jury Panel

In the advancement of affluent communities, IAA has enlisted the expertise of several members as the proud jurors of the iLuxury Awards, each assembling paramount reputation that will surely lead brands forward. The juries engage in unbiased and blind judging, further insuring just evaluations of exclusive luxury awards winners. Hence, the panel consists of Jeremy Smith (New Zealand), Eugenio Bini (Italy), Joon Kwon (South Korea), Kushal Birari (United States), Maria Chatzistavrou (Switzerland) and many others.

“Luxury is more than just adjectives, it is a representation of the highest status and standings, and that stands riveted at the iLuxury Awards, especially with the participation of such great brands!” exclaimed Thomas Brandt, the spokesperson of IAA. “As we continue to indulge in opulent brands, the world is slowly altering courses to encase more classifications of affluence, making luxury a standard.”
