, formerly Bell Equipment Services, supports national and local companies that depend on specialty truck equipment to deliver products and services to their customers. "The truck equipment and hydraulic repair will be a new addition to our growing network of service centers. I've been looking for opportunities to expand our service offerings and Bell is a near perfect fit," stated

Tom Wiers, CEO & Owner of Wiers.

The things our new Corpus Christi team can fix are incredible. It feels like Corpus Christi can fix almost anything on a truck.”

Drew Hettich

Bell Equipment Services is well known in South Texas for supporting customers who depend on specialty truck equipment like bucket trucks, digger derricks, cranes, refuse trucks, generators, and oil field equipment. Services include safety inspections, annual preventative maintenance, dielectric testing, hydraulic cylinder repair, and mobile service technicians.

“As an authorized Parker Truck Hydraulic Center, we offer Chelsea PTOs and Parker Pump products and services and a full line of Parker fittings and hoses. The things our new Corpus Christi team can fix are incredible. It feels like Corpus Christi can fix almost anything on a truck,” said Drew Hettich, President & COO of Wiers. Carlos Perez will join Wiers as the Service Manager of the truck equipment & hydraulic repair shop.

Specialty Truck Equipment in Corpus Christi, TX
