

A Place Called Home Brings Holiday Magic to Thousands of Children and Families in South Central

On Friday, December 16th, A Place Called Home will distribute 10,000 toys, treats, clothes and other goods to children and families in South Central Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 15, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- A Place Called Home (APCH), a nonprofit community center providing free, enriching programs in the arts, education, and health and wellness for South Central youth and their families, is hosting its annual Home for the Holidays event. The event will feature entertainment by iHeartRadio, hot cocoa and coffee provided by Starbucks, and a holiday parade with Santa, and staff and volunteers will distribute toys, clothing, treats, and more to 3,000 children and families.

APCH will distribute 10,000 toys, treats, clothing, and more to South Central youth and families

WHO:

Norayma Cabot, CEO, A Place Called Home

Gilbert Radillo, Sr. Director of Engagement, A Place Called Home

This event is made possible by generous sponsors the Canet Foundation, Aftermath Entertainment, SoCal Gas and Starbucks. Volunteer support is being provided by Starbucks, U.S. Bank, APCH youth members, members of the APCH Board of Directors and Leadership Council, and individual community members.

WHEN:

Friday, December 16, 2022

5:00 PM - Confirmed media is welcome on campus

5:00-5:50 PM - iHeartRadio entertainment

5:50 PM - Parade with Santa

6 PM until completion - gifts and treats will be distributed to local families

WHERE:

A Place Called Home | 2830 S. Central Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90011

WHY:

For many families in South Central, the holidays are a stressful time. Economic, housing, and food insecurity have been amplified as a result of the pandemic, and many families and children will not expect to receive gifts this year. Not only are we providing toys, treats, clothing, and other goods, but we are ensuring that South Central youth and families can experience the joy and celebration of the holiday season.
