

Unravel Launches New Personal Growth Course Unravel: Go

Unravel Groups, a nationwide men's organization dedicated to the pursuit of excellence, launches a new free six-week introductory course called Unravel: Go.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES,
December 19, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Unravel: Go is designed for men who are hungry for growth and interested in exploring the Unravel process without the extended commitment of its current offerings. The course is completely free, and participants will be able to complete the material at their own pace, with the curriculum sent directly to their inbox.

Unravel builds your capacity to handle the challenges of life. It stretches you to develop discipline and excellence. I've become more competent as a husband and a father, as well as a professional.”

Eric, participant

Each day, Unravel: Go participants tackle a question, prompt, or conversation, guided by life-changing principles and timeless truths. They will also have the opportunity to engage with and solicit feedback from other men they already know and trust. Men will emerge from the process with greater awareness, motivation, and direction toward their goals in all areas of their lives. Unravel: Go is especially helpful for men looking to find purpose or begin a new chapter.

Unlike Unravel's standard in-person and virtual groups, Unravel: Go is completely self-directed. This allows participants to start the course on their own schedule and, if they prefer, alongside other men in their personal circle - including their friends, colleagues, mentors, or members of their faith community.

Men who complete Unravel: Go are encouraged to take the next step by joining an Unravel group, either in-person or virtually. Unravel participants become better equipped to meet the demands of their everyday lives, develop a clearer picture of who they are, their purpose and motivations, and build the practical skills needed to realize their unique, personal mission.

Those who are interested in signing up for the free Unravel: Go course should visit the Unravel website, which includes an easy sign-up form to get you started on the road to progress. For questions, please contact Unravel Groups today.
