

VIITORCLOUD AND MEDIALOGIX ANNOUNCE GLOBAL STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP TO CO-CREATE NEXT-GEN BUSINESS SOLUTIONS

This partnership accelerates growth and delivers exceptional customer experiences through value-driven digital solutions

HENLEY-IN-ARDEN, UNITED KINGDOM, January 19, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ViitorCloud Technologies and Medialogix have announce global strategic partnership in the Metaverse, in the presence of leadership and associates of both companies, to co-create next-generation business solutions for their products and services in the UK market. This partnership aims to provide innovative solutions to customers in the UK, particularly in the healthcare, media, policing, and law enforcement industries.

The partnership builds on the previous collaboration, which resulted in the successful delivery of a digital solution to one of the largest public services in the UK. Both companies will leverage different skill sets and industry knowledge to provide advanced solutions that meet clients' needs. With this partnership, both companies are looking forward to work together and assist more customers in the future.

"I am pleased to announce that we will be collaborating with Medialogix to develop and deliver innovative digital solutions in the UK and the surrounding markets where Medialogix operates," said Rohit Purohit, CEO of ViitorCloud. "With Medialogix's support, we have already successfully provided digital solutions to the Royal Navy in the UK and we are excited to continue growing our presence in the market and helping more customers through this partnership."

"At Medialogix, we are committed to putting our clients first and delivering innovative solutions that meet their needs," said Faisal Mahmood, CEO of Medialogix. "Our customer base is primarily in the healthcare and law enforcement sectors, as I am personally passionate about improving public services. Since 2003, we have been working with our clients to provide the best possible cost-effective solutions; many of them have been using our solutions for almost 20 years. With ViitorCloud's expertise in emerging technologies, including blockchain-based products, metaverse offerings, and AI-based solutions, as well as their dedication to research and development, we can offer exceptional value-driven digital solutions."

Combining ViitorCloud and Medialogix's expertise in the emerging technologies, the partnership accelerates growth and delivers exceptional customer experiences through value-driven digital solutions.

The contracts and marketing communications were curated using Generative AI and the partnership documents were signed and exchanged using the power of blockchain.
