Our Great Holiday GiveBack program enables us to make an impact during the holiday season with so many deserving non-profits in our region nominated by our caring members and dedicated team.”

Christopher Hendry, President and CEO

“IC has a long history of giving back to our community”, commented Christopher Hendry, President and CEO. “For the second year in a row, our Great Holiday GiveBack program enables us to make an impact during the holiday season with so many deserving non-profits in our region nominated by our caring members and dedicated team. We’re humbled to play a small role in making our community better.”

The winning organizations are all deeply engaged in empowering and assisting community members in need.

Animal shelters, after-school organizations, children and family services, and cancer research and support programs are among the groups nominated by both members and team members.

To spotlight these organizations and their work, IC reached out to the people who nominated them to explain in their own words why each charity is so vital within the communities they serve.
