EINPresswire.com/ -- Heparin Sodium

Market size is estimated to reach $2.4 billion by 2027, growing at a CAGR of 3.6% during the forecast period 2022-2027. On bifurcating the word Heparin, we get Hepa and rin. Hepa means liver and rin means GAGs (=

“Glycosaminoglycans”, compounds

formed following the composition of disaccharide units. GAGs are expedient in preclusion of blood clots). Therefore, Heparin Sodium can be demarcated as an anticoagulant that discourages agglomeration of the blood in angio/arteries, phlebo/veins, heart. Heparins are derived from porcine intestinal tissue and are largely used in treatments accompanied with DIC (= Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation, a sickness embarking on the genesis of thickets of condensed blood in vessels carrying it and suspending the stream of plasma/blood to principal parts of the body such as cerebrum, excretory organs, and liver. Ascension in stalwart efforts of researchers in the field of nanotechnology, massive capita financing by the government to research, and academic institution to carry forward their work are the few factors set to drive the growth of the Heparin Sodium Industry for the period 2022-2027.
