"When I had them at my previous church, I never will forget when they began to sing that familiar song—'It's Shouting Time in Heaven.' The audience just came to their feet shouting and singing. The Hoppers made that famous walk, and you just knew that the Holy Spirit was all over that room. We are going to be so blessed to have them at our church! I'm looking forward to an amazing Holy Concert!"

Among its many accolades, the group has been inducted into the Gospel Music Association Hall of Fame.

"Their inspiring evolution as a group and pressing impact on the genre speak for themselves, but the powerhouse performances and heart-gripping testimonies are what have aided in their recognition," a spokesperson said.
