Global Mezcal Market – Industry Trends and Forecast to 2029

PUNE, MAHARASHTRA, INDIA,
December 21, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- In recent years,

mezcal has shown a considerable increase in demand across the globe and is predicted to continue to do so over the forecast period. The big millennial consumer base around the world is driving vendors to increase their geographic presence, which is boosting the expansion of the mezcal market. Additionally, also due to the availability of the range of flavors, consumers prefer mezcal to other tequila brands. The products in the global mezcal market are considered to be highly eco-friendly, less harmful and even renewable. The ecologically friendly character has further prompted key players in a variety of end-use industry verticals to choose goods from the global mezcal market, which is projected to aid the market growth.

Global Mezcal Market was valued at USD 387.10 million in 2021 and is expected to reach USD 2458.15 million by 2029, registering a CAGR of 22.80% during the forecast period of 2022-2029. The “mezcal joven” accounts for the largest product type segment in the mezcal market within the forecasted period owing to the fact that lifespan of mezcal joven is much more as compared to other segments, and thus, it is highly adopted. The market report curated by the Data Bridge Market Research team includes in-depth expert analysis, import/export analysis, pricing analysis, production consumption analysis, consumer behavior and patent analysis.
