To make it on the list, Clutch’s team of analysts conducts extensive research on company qualities such as market presence, work quality, and client experience. Each of the Clutch profiles contains verified reviews from prior clients (conducted by Clutch analysts in an interview or online form format) and a satisfaction rating out of 5 stars.

To compete for the #1 spot on the Clutch rankings, they need to earn as many reviews from their clients as possible.

Speaking on the achievement Founder of Testrig Technologies, Parimal Kumar said, “The feat was achieved through our continuous and dedicated efforts to help our customers in improving their product quality. It was not possible without the support of our partners who always stand by us. This is why it is no surprise that those same clients came forward and helped us get named a top B2B company in Dallas on Clutch for 2022.”

Appreciating the efforts taken by Testrig’s customers to review Testrig Technologies Parimal said, “Our team wants to thank all our clients and partners for helping us achieve this unique and important milestone. We recognize the efforts that go into writing, verifying, and publishing even just one of these reviews. It is a great feeling that enough people were willing to do all that on our behalf that we won an award for it.”
