

Eugene L. Lowenkopf's Book Asks "Money Makes the World Go Round, or Does It?" A Psychiatric Examination

Book Vine Press author Eugene L. Lowenkopf's book is an informative volume that considers the subject of money from a psychiatrist's viewpoint.

PALATINE, IL, UNITED STATES, March 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Almighty Dollar: A Psychiatrist Looks at Money" examines elements of the money-mind interaction from the perspective of a psychiatrist who has dealt with the issues that money causes as well as the ones that it ostensibly cures. There are chapters on life stages including childhood, adolescence, marriage, maturity, retirement, old age and death, as well as chapters on specific issues like divorce, poverty, wealth, gambling, theft, philanthropy and hoarding. The author illustrates these concerns using examples from his professional work as well as from history, literature, current events and popular culture and personalities. He continues by explaining how to rectify disturbances that involve money in order to become happier and more successful.
