Silk Market Overview:

- Forecast CAGR (2022-2032): 8.42%
- Forecast Market Size (2032): 37.96 billion

The most recent coronavirus outbreak has had a negative impact on the silk market. Throughout the COVID-19 period, the silk industry faced a number of production-related difficulties, such as fluctuating cocoon and raw silk prices, transportation issues, a labor shortage, a drop in the sale of raw silk and products related to silk, a decline in working capital and cash flow, fewer export/import orders, and other restrictions. Orders and supply in recent months demonstrated a declining trend in silk production during the height of COVID-19, which is now visibly improving. The epidemic has also led to changes in consumer behavior and marketing strategies. The supply chains of companies in France, China, and India region have experienced serious problems. market and value chain analysis.
