WALTHAM, MA, USA, December 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lionbridge, a global leader in translation and localization solutions, has been named to the Forbes list of Best Employers for Diversity for the third consecutive year. This prestigious award is presented by Forbes and Statista Inc., the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider.

At Lionbridge, diverse voices are what power our mission of breaking barriers and building bridges.”

John Fennelly, CEO, Lionbridge

To compile the list, Statista surveyed employees on criteria such as age, gender, ethnicity, disability, and sexual orientation equality, as well as that of general diversity. Participants were also given the chance to evaluate other employers in their respective industries. The final list recognizes employers that not only were the most highly recommended, but also exhibited diversity in leadership and the most proactive diversity and inclusion initiatives.

Over 60,000 U.S. employees were surveyed in companies with a minimum of 1,000 employees to identify The Best Employers for Diversity.

“At Lionbridge, diverse voices are what power our mission of breaking barriers and building bridges,” said John Fennelly, CEO, Lionbridge. “We deliver the best for our customers by seeking out distinct points of view that share a common passion for connecting communities. We’re honored to be recognized by Forbes for our commitment to building an ever-more diverse and inclusive global team.”
