

5 jaw-dropping cases that prove personal injury law isn't what it seems

Top NYC Attorney Mitchel Ashley Shares Recent Real-Life Cases That Exemplify This Far-Reaching Legal Arena

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, USA,
December 22, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- When one thinks of “personal injury law,” the mind immediately races to the slew of TV ads promising swift justice after a hit-and-run or fall on the job. Many are surprised to discover exactly how far-reaching is this exciting area of law practice, covering a wide variety of case types in which an individual is accidentally harmed or killed. In fact, Mitchel Ashley of The Ashley Law Firm recently took on five personal injury cases that exemplify the incredible range of real-life situations.

“Whatever the cause of injury or size of the defendant, we are relentless in pursuit of the best possible outcome for our clients,” shares Ashley. “You’d be surprised how many defendants refuse to accept liability or pay due compensation, and we’re here to fight for the justice our clients deserve.”

Mitchell Ashley, Founder The Ashley Law Firm

Ashley is one of New York’s brightest self-made success stories, advancing the legal profession and securing peace of mind for clients during these increasingly troubled times. Trusted by New Yorkers for more than a decade, his firm has come to the rescue of hundreds of clients who have been injured or wronged, obtaining verdicts in the millions of dollars with an approach centered on steadfast values of honor, hard work, and commitment to providing the very best legal services.

In the case of personal injury, much more is lost than just physical well-being. Such accidents add uncertainty and worry to an already hectic everyday life, resulting in burdens that range from sky-high medical bills and lost wages to emotional distress, lifelong disability, or - in some cases - even wrongful death. Most injury cases involve a combination of factors or causes, and The Ashley Law Firm works hard to get the victim(s) due financial compensation from those responsible.
