

DJ Paul Oakenfold's PerfectoVerse Concert Film & Immersive Experience

Using 3D technologies to create an online, visually stunning concert film and 360° immersive experience accessible to music fans worldwide.

LOS ANGELES , CA, UNITED STATES, December 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Witness the future literally, as DJ Paul Oakenfold, 3-time Grammy-nominated DJ, Godfather of Electronic Dance Music and voted #1 DJ in the world announces his forthcoming online concert film & immersive 'watch & play" experience, PerfectoVerse.

If you're a music fan, this is something that's not to be missed. If you are curious about the future of Hollywood, and how virtual entertainment experiences are changing online music concerts, this is a must see. The online, immersive concert film goes live December 22 at 9PM globally where DJ Paul Oakenfold will be unveiling to the world what a virtual concert experience looks like in his imagination. Tickets are on sale now at PerfectoVerse.com.

"PerfectoVerse is a 72-minute movie with me DJ'ing my greatest hits! It has stunning visual effects and I encourage you to check out my interactive self as an avatar, plus all the tracks have been remixed with 3D audio for an amazing new listening experience. I can't wait to get my fan's reactions!"

Eric Schwertzel, Creative Director, "PerfectoVerse is part of the new category of Web3 storytelling experiences, it is a concert film with DJ Oakenfold's amazing dance music with an online immersive experience. We used 3D virtual production technology, including volumetric video, motion capture and green screen filming. We bring this into the Unreal game engine to create fantasy worlds that reflect his lyrics. In addition to the 72-minute concert film, fans will get a 10-minute immersive experience that will allow you to interact using a virtual camera, so you become the director in a 360° world on any browser."

"This is a complete entertainment experience unlike anything the world has seen before, watch it come to life and celebrate together with your friends and family," says Jerry Reid CRO of FansXR and PerfectoVerse Co-Creator, "The experience is well timed as DJ Oakenfold has recently toured with New Order and Pet Shop Boys, performed sold out shows at Madison Square Garden and the Hollywood Bowl to name a few, so we are very excited about this new global fan experience potentially reaching fans in over 100 countries."

The PerfectoVerse comes as a 4K online concert film with 3D audio and a bonus three-song online immersive experience, powered by YOOM's volumetric capture technology.

Gilad Talmon, CEO of YOOM and PerfectoVerse Co-Producer, adds, "We are thrilled to be partnered with DJ Oakenfold on this ambitious, groundbreaking project. We helped create a one-of-a-kind immersive experience that puts you in control of the camera. Try out the three-song set where you can go wide, move around, zoom in or play around with a variety of stage settings for a truly customized set with the one and only, DJ Paul Oakenfold. The experience was shot completely in volumetric and produced by our team at YOOM."
