

Celebrate Christmas in Quito

The Capital of the Center of the World presents several Christmas history, traditions and artistic expressions

QUITO, ECUADOR, December 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Quito, an ancient city, combines styles from the pre-Inca era, the Spanish conquest, and the Republican period, until reaching the modern era, making its art a unique cultural representation that is reflected in its different traditions and activities.

During Christmas Quito offers the possibility of getting to know its traditions, history and culture. For example, one of the most visited sites is the Convent of San Francisco, which has some 30 nativity scenes made, for the most part, by hand and many of them with recyclable materials.

Among the nativity scenes, the one created in marzipan with lacquer in bright colors and ornamentation that resembles the fabrics of the highlands stands out; or the one that was built in a grotto on which a model of the Franciscan convent itself stands impressively.

There are also other modern nativity scenes, such as the one on display in La Loma Grande, where the iconic figures of the manger such as Jesus, Joseph, Mary, the shepherds, and the Magi; Traditional Quito characters such as the 'ponchero', the covered lady, the canillitas, chullas, nuns and more are added.
