members of the advisory committee of "Hadia Foundation" were also present.

According to organizational sources, most of the rickshaw-drivers, disabled, poor, helpless and low-income people cannot afford to buy winter clothes in the current market.

Hence the initiative of "Hadia Foundation" to spread the warmth of winter to everyone.

In the past, "Hadia Foundation" has stood by people all over Bangladesh by providing free Quran Sharif, Islamic books and Iftar items, and free medical care during the holy month of Ramadan. In addition, they have been helping the poor and helpless people. This is how the foundation is moving forward with humanitarian work. Their humanitarian work will continue.

The president and vice president of "Hadia Foundation" said - those who supported us financially! On behalf of "Hadia Foundation" expressing gratitude to all of them. And at the same time seeking cooperation from the rich people of the society.
