"We'd love to hear from our users, and wanna know how our products can make some difference in their lives. Meanwhile, by sharing stories, our global users can be inspired by each other, and unlock more scenarios", James Ray explained the motive of this online activity.

All users can participate with a short Youtube video telling their special moments with BLUETTI products. Whether it's a clip from a camping trip, a wilderness expedition, a garden party, or happy family time during a power outage, every story related to BLUETTI power backup will earn a chance to win a free solar generator such as EB3A, EB55, hand-picked gifts like mini-fridges, coupons and more.

BLUETTI recently added a BLUETTI Lifestyle section to its website homepage as a way to strengthen its connection with its users and show its appreciation for their support and likes.

As every dollar spent at BLUETTI official store or other third-party platforms, a BLUETTI Buck is deposited into a user's account. Usually, buyers use the Bucks to offset their next order after redeeming them for coupons or gift cards. Now, the Bucks also can redeem many useful BLUETTI Lifestyle products, including but not limited to outdoor gear (handheld vacuum, mini fridge, camping lantern, power strip); BLUETTI brand apparel (T-shirt, hoodie or cap) and other gadgets like phone tripods, key chains, stickers, etc.

BLUETTI always takes its users seriously and strives to improve their experience by offering premium products and thoughtful services.
