Said CEO And Founder - Mr. Mukesh Sharma

CryptoMize offers many services, for instance conducting surveys for opinion polls, voter analysis, social media campaigns, competition research and Intelligence, Tactical Intelligence, Demographics, threat Intelligence, Sentiment Monitoring, political strategies, execution plans, etc.

In other words, governance, policy formulation and implementation, electoral campaign, surveys, and voter analysis are made easy with the same. Significantly, Nowadays, everything around us is digital, and the role of CryptoMize in political campaigns has become essential. Every political party is using digital agencies like CryptoMize for their political campaign.

Also, in the context of cyber security, on the one hand, digitalization and a cashless economy are top priorities for the government. On the other hand, it's a significant threat to Nations' internal security. To get rid of the same, Cryptomize provides many cyber security measures to prevent and resolve cyber security issues digitally. In the same light, they are giving many products like Crypto Box, Crypto Drive, Crypto Mail, and Crypto Router to cycle the cyber threats and store the data securely.

Digital agencies like CryptoMize play a significant role in shaping political and electoral campaigns by providing a galaxy of digital processes to strengthen the same. They help the political party to gain maximum popularity and help them to reach people without going to them. In the same light, various political parties and candidates can use CryptoMize services quite effectively and implement more appropriate strategies for their political leadership.

CryptoMize also manages "Virtual Rallies" for government and political parties in the wake of the covid-19 pandemic, which helps political parties to improve their electoral performance without any physical presence.

Some critical keys areas of CryptoMize that can help political parties in many ways are:

Helping Political parties to reach more people: In the context of electoral campaigns, They can help political parties reach anywhere via the internet via Digital Campaigns. CryptoMize will also expose the movement to more demographics, particularly young people. This strategy makes getting more people effortless, and the party's agenda can be targeted to the right and appropriate audiences through narrations, online advertising, and search engine optimization (SEO). Thus, the above things make it more comfortable and convenient for the political party to reach as many as they want with minimum effort.

Using Social Media Platforms: Using different social media platforms is very relevant. For example, more than half the Indians suggest social media as their primary source of daily news and information. So, it is wise to start a political campaign using social media with the help of CryptoMize.

Overseeing Competition in Politics: Politics generally means the struggle for power. To boost one's political viability, estimating and computing one's rival's activities is an unquestionable requirement. To comprehend the world of politics, a political specialist should do a serious examination. A cutthroat investigation can give the fundamental establishment to battling and give you an edge over your rival. This Conglomerate provides the appropriate Consultancy in the same regard.

Competition Research: It matters incredibly because it helps an up-and-comer dissect and know their rival's activities and, subsequently, stay ahead. It is the act of gathering data on a political competitor or other adversaries that can be utilized to supersede or, in any case, debilitate them. Political insight the executives doesn't just include the promulgation of its own USPs. Instead, it is centered around the exposure of cynicism or resistance; however, the pessimism should be concrete and proven. Cryptomize will assist you with doing that as it requires a great deal of examination on a similar issue. It is founded on SWOT (Strengths, weakness, opportunities, and threats), underscoring that the shortcoming of a contender is one's solidarity.

Political Consultancies can be very important in determining the success of a campaign or an election. A well-planned campaign with an effective communication strategy can lead to success, while a poorly planned and executed campaign can lead to failure. Political Consultancies play a very crucial role in any election.

Consequently, In the age of digitization, political parties need these services to strengthen their leadership and to win the election. As you know, Government agencies have many policies that have to reach a maximum number of voters where outreach is essential. Their services, putting innovation and the latest research to their best use, plan to help legislatures come to the public effectively so they can administer better. Throughout governmental issues, data has forever been the way to win any political election.

We live in the time of Artificial Intelligence and where data is balanced significantly, yet figuring out it makes you win a political race. Political Consultancy is a political help. It includes vital preparation, crusade arranging, promoting research, etc. However, A political Consultant is a person who informs on the viewpoint concerning legislative issues, general elections, and related methodology. Our Solutions give an intelligence edge to the data by connecting components. CryptoMize has decades of experience working in the sphere of political campaigns and using our expertise in the sphere of Information Security, Research, and Development.
