As per “The Business Research Company's "Fats And Oils Global Market Report 2022", the fats and oils market is predicted to reach a value of $180.76 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 10.1%. The Russia-Ukraine war disrupted the chances of global economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, at least in the short term. The war between these two countries has led to economic sanctions on multiple countries, surge in commodity prices, and supply chain disruptions, effecting many markets across the globe. The fats and oils global market is expected to grow to $233.6 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 6.6%. Many countries across the globe are experiencing falling prices of crops due to overcapacity; this is expected to result in low raw material costs for fats and oils manufacturing companies.

Key Trends In The Fats And Oils Market

Manufacturers are increasingly offering avocado oil due to an increase in demand from health-conscious customers. Avocado oil provides a lot of health benefits as it is a healthy fat and contains plenty of vitamins. Also, there is an increase in global avocado fruit production of five million metric tons, and annual production is expected to increase by nearly 200,000 metric tons. Mexico produces around 1.8 million metric tonnes of avocado fruit. This increase in fruit production is also expected to lead to increased demand.
