

The Ghost Girl and the Afterlife

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kelsey Bohlen is currently starring in the new hit docufilm "Ghosts and the Afterlife: A Scientific investigation."

Being her first starring role, Kelsey is very happy to hear that this recently-released film is doing so well, listed in the top-selling documentaries on Vudu, iTunes, and Amazon.

The subject matter of life after death has become quite popular recently to the point where Tucker Carlson dedicated an entire hour program to the subject of death and life after death just this last Monday.

A few of the reviews extolling Kelsey's presentation of the film are listed below:

Kelsey Bohlen in "Ghosts and the Afterlife"

"The interviews are excellent, and Bohlen is a good host. Thanks to its focus on science, Sayre makes the most compelling case yet for the afterlife..." -Bobby LePire (Film Threat)

"Kelsey Bohlen narrates Steve Sayre's engaging, intriguing, informative, insightful, 72-minute documentary highlighted by striking photography that uses scientific evidence, video recordings, and first-hand accounts to examine consciousness, life after death, and the existences of ghosts and souls and consists of archival photographs, fascinating paranormal footage, and commentary by producer and author James Van Praagh..."

The most compelling case yet for the afterlife..."

-Bobby LePire (Film Threat)

-Wendy Schadewald (syndicated columnist)

"If you are a fan of paranormal activities discussions, this is going to be a very interesting documentary for you." -Darren Lucas (Movie Reviews 101)

Kelsey was born and raised on a ranch in a small farming community in Texas, where her father Alan Bohlen became a successful businessman and her uncle Homer struck oil on his property. She grew up riding horses and competing in rodeos across the country and has won multiple state and national titles.

Kelsey has also won both the Miss Texas High School Rodeo and Miss Rodeo Texas Teen beauty pageants, which is where she developed her love for performing. After graduating with honors from The University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's degree in journalism, Kelsey started doing a bit of television reporting but soon found that she was more interested in an acting career, which resulted in a national Chevrolet commercial that aired during the Super Bowl, followed by multiple small roles in several Lifetime movies, regional commercials, and independent films, including an appearance as a singer in David Lynch's revision of "Twin Peaks."

Kelsey tells us that the most exciting adventures she encountered during the making of the film were participating in an actual ghost hunt in the middle of nowhere and being able to meet and interact with so many highly-talented people during the interview process—such as James Van Praagh (Executive Producer of "Ghost Whisperer" with Jennifer Love Hewitt, "Living with the Dead" with Ted Danson, and "The Dead Will Tell," starring Eva Longoria. Vision Films is now the exclusive distributor for "Ghosts and the Afterlife."

From all indications, "Ghosts And The Afterlife" appears to be Kelsey's breakthrough role.
