Before STARRS made the new site public, there was a lot of planning, time, attention, effort, and skill by some very talented people, Scott said. "We appreciate those who made the updated site possible."

Within the new site, which has been optimized for mobile viewers, visitors learn about the organization's leadership, exercising their duty to preserve the principles of our Founding documents.

"There is also the ability to donate; to join the fight to help us restore unity to our military. As a nonprofit we can always use the support and appreciate all who take advantage of the site to do so," Scott said

The site features a short 3-minute introductory video (STARRS Introduction 2022 - YouTube). <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uyv0JugFHv4&t=47s>

Other features include:

- Enhanced security features
- Clear navigation
- Good site structure
- Online search capability
- SEO
- Website analytics
- Quick loading
- Social media plug-ins
- Contact Us function
- Volunteer Opportunities

The home page menu has been set up to find articles, media appearances, and ‘The Intellectuals’ podcasts. Visitors can discover key categories like About, Articles, Issues, Academies, Press Releases, and more.

The feedback from viewers has been positive. Comments include:
