

PHIGOLF TO EXHIBIT AT CES 2023 IN LAS VEGAS

Experience the Future of Virtual Golf at CES 2023

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, USA, December 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phigolf is excited to announce that they will be exhibiting at the Consumer Electronics Show (CES) 2023 in Las Vegas, taking place from January 5th to 8th. They will be showcasing their new Phigolf 2 mobile golf simulator, giving media the opportunity to demo the product and experience its innovative features firsthand.

Phigolf 2 is a state-of-the-art mobile home golf simulator that allows users to practice and analyze their swing from any location. With live feedback on various aspects of their swing, including head speed, tempo, club path, and more, users can improve their skills and track their progress. The Phigolf 2 package includes a compact swing trainer club that simulates the feel of a real golf club, as well as a sensor that can be inserted into their own clubs for use with the simulator. The Phigolf 2 swing stick and sensor can also be used with popular golfing apps like World Golf Tour and E6 Connect and play on renowned championship courses.

“

For passionate golfers, having access to the game regardless of weather or location is key.”
