Always help someone who could never do anything for you in return.”

John Cena

Make-A-Wish has been granting wishes to critically ill children for the past 25 years. Their philosophy is that by granting wishes it contributes to physical, mental, and emotional health. Over the years many celebrities have donated tickets to Broadway shows, sporting events and concerts. Make-A-Wish also arranges for the lucky recipients to meet their favorite movie stars, WWE wrestlers, and professional athletes.

WWE superstar John Cena has granted more wishes to critically ill children than any other celebrity. To date he has granted over 650 wishes. Actor Steve Comisar was once in prison and he knows what it feels like to be an underdog and lose hope. That's why he is giving back by donating his valuable second row tickets to The Lion King. For information on how to make a terminally ill child's wishes come true please contact Make-A-Wish.
