Insurance Group is pleased to announce that their insurance brokers support seniors with Medicare decisions to ensure optimal coverage at an affordable price. They recognize many seniors feel confused and frustrated by Medicare and aim to provide the best solutions to reduce medical costs and allow seniors to enjoy their later years.

DeverCare Insurance Group is an insurance brokerage specializing in Medicare solutions. Seniors can trust their brokers to answer questions and help them choose between basic Medicare with the most suitable supplement plans or an all-inclusive Medicare Advantage plan. Brokers discuss the pros and cons of each option with clients to ensure they make an informed decision that guarantees the best coverage for their medical needs.

DeverCare Insurance Group continues working with seniors after choosing the most suitable Medicare plans. Their brokers check in with clients throughout the year to determine whether their coverage is working. If seniors are still paying too much for medical or prescription costs, they work with clients to choose better plans when open enrollment begins. They can also help seniors utilize special enrollment to make adjustments when required. Their team offers all the Medicare products seniors need to minimize out-of-pocket costs.

Anyone interested in learning how they support seniors with Medicare decisions can find out more by visiting the DeverCare Insurance Group website or calling +1 (877) 392-6888.
